OUTRAGES IN TURKEY

Fully Fifteen Thousand People Have Been Slaughtered.

IT IS ALMOST BEYOND ELIEF.

A Letter Just Made Public, Written by a Man in Whom the Highest Confidence is Placed, and Portions are Too Horrible to Repeat—Thirty-Five Villages Plundered and Destroyed.

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—A letter has just been received in this city from a point near the sea of the recent outrages in eastern Turkey, places the number of slaughtered Armenians at fully 15,000. It is written by a man in whom the highest confidence is placed, and portions are too horrible to repeat. The writer, in part, says:

"The Armenians, oppressed by Kurds and Turks, said 'we can not pay taxes to both Kurds and government.' Plundered and oppressed by the Kurds they resisted them. There were some killed. Then false reports were sent to Constantinople that the Armenians were in arms in rebellion. Orders were sent to the mushir, in Erzerum, to exterminate them. The order read before the army collected in haste from all the chief tribes in eastern Turkey was: 'Whoever spares men, women or children is disloyal.' The region was surrounded by soldiers, and 20,000 Kurds also are said to have been massed there. Then they advanced upon the center, driving the people like a flock of sheep, and continued thus to advance for days.

"No quarter was given; no mercy shown. Men, women and children were shot down or butchered like sheep. Probably when they were set upon in this way, some tried to save their lives and resisted in self-defense. Many, who could, fled in all directions, but the majority was slain. The most probable estimate is 15,000 killed, 35 villages plundered, razed and burned. Women were outraged and men butchered. A priest was taken to the roof of his church and hacked to pieces and the edifice set on fire. A large number of women and girls collected in a church were kept for days, the sport of soldiers, and then murdered. It is said the number was so large that the blood flowed out of the church door.

"The soldiers contended over a beautiful girl, they wanted to preserve her, but she, too, was killed. As a confirmation of the report, the other day, several hundred soldiers were returning from the seat of war, and one was heard to say that he alone, with his own hand, had killed 30 pregnant women."

Appeal From Boston Ministers.

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—At a meeting of the Methodist Episcopal ministers of this city and vicinity, resolutions were adopted expressing profound sympathy with the Christians in Turkish Armenia, thanking President Cleveland for having appointed a commission to investigate the Armenian outrages and urging the state department to prosecute this investigation by every means at its command. It was also decided that a sermon shall be preached every month until further orders on the condition of affairs in Turkish Armenia.

SEWER GAS EXPLOSION.

Eight Men Injured, Several of Them Seriously.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—By the explosion of sewer gas in the basement of Edward Keeley's saloon at 347 Fifth avenue, yesterday afternoon, eight men were injured, several of them seriously. The explosion was caused by the ignition of sewer gas from a candle carried by a porter who had gone into the basement for the purpose of drawing some wine. The porter, Henry Washington, was the most seriously injured of all, his head being badly cut, and he sustained internal injuries. The others injured were: John Clark, Patrick Ryan, George Doherty, George Fleming, George Hartley, Otto Budde and Terry Van Skye.

The explosion was so violent that the front of the saloon was badly shattered, and the stone sidewalk thrown into the street. The saloon is under the Lincoln hotel, and for a few minutes a lively panic prevailed among the guests. None of the injured will die, although Washington's condition is very serious.

Jail Birds Escape.

PITTSBURG, Kan., Jan. 3.—The six inmates of the city jail escaped Monday night by digging through the outside wall of the corridor, went to Litchfield, about — miles away, and spent the night in drinking and celebrating the event of the New Year. Five of them hired a carriage and returned yesterday morning, and demanded admittance to the jail to complete their sentences. They were all pretty drunk and apparently enjoyed the joke they had played upon the officers. Will Hickens, who was awaiting a preliminary examination upon a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, failed to return with the others, however, and is still at large.

Senator Carey Ill.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 2.—United States Senator Carey is confined to his residence with a severe cold, but his illness is not considered serious. He will not return to Washington until after the senatorial election by the legislature.

Three People Killed.

AUBURN, N. Y., Jan. 2.—The Lehigh Valley eastbound passenger train No. 134 from Geneva struck a sleigh a half mile east of Willard, containing Mrs. Hughes, her son and Miss Larkin of Ovid, and all the occupants were killed.

TRAIN ROBBERS FOILED.

Six Masked Men Attempted to Hold Up an Express Train.

CAMDEN, Ark., Jan. 2.—Six masked men made an effort to rob the north-bound cotton belt train due here at 10 o'clock at a tank 10 miles south of Camden. Their object was to secure the express money. The train stopped as usual to take water, and the negro porter got off the train to go around to the tank to let the water on. He was stopped, however, by a Winchester in his face and ordered to uncouple the cars. This order was obeyed, and the engineer, who was under guard, was made to run the car up from the train, a distance of half a mile.

The bandits discovered too late that they had made a water haul, taking the baggage car instead of the express car. They had to grin, take their medicine and go to the woods. The leader told the engineer that he had the laugh on them, but would see him again. The work was so quickly done that the passengers did not know what was going on until the would-be robbers had found refuge in the dense forest.

The scene of the robbery is more than a mile from any residence, the small station, Buena Vista, being about a mile south. There is no better place than this for bandits to ply their calling. On the arrival of the train at Camden the sheriff was informed, and a posse was soon on the ground, but no clew to their whereabouts could be obtained.

A special train was run up from Texarkana with men, guns and horses to continue the search. At this hour, 6:30, there have been no new developments in the vigorous search which is going on.

The men were masked with red bandana handkerchiefs. It is supposed that they went out from Camden, and it is even intimated that they live in Camden.

A dispatch from the Cotton Belt office states that a reward of $200 will be paid for the arrest and conviction of each of the party, and the governor is also expected to offer a reward.

One More Veteran Called Home.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Jan. 2.—Captain H. B. Seeley died at 11 o'clock yesterday of cancer. He enlisted in the Sixth New York infantry at the opening of the war, and was rapidly promoted. He was a member of General Hancock's staff and in the memorable charge on Pickett's brigade was seriously wounded. He was a prisoner in Libby prison for 20 months. After the war he studied for the ministry and for years was one of the brightest members of the M. E. conference in Missouri. He was a well known orator and during the first Harrison campaign stumped the State of New York.

Murdered His Wife and Child.

BAY CITY, Mich., Jan. 2.—Daniel J. Tromley, a lumber inspector, 28 years of age, crazed over politics, murdered his wife and child yesterday, set fire to the house and made his escape. The murder was discovered by the firemen who found Mrs. Tromley with her throat cut lying on the bed and burned almost to a crisp. The child had evidently been smothered, as no marks were found upon it. Tromley ran on an independent ticket for county clerk at the late election, canvassing the entire county and making wild speeches.

McBride Takes Charge.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—John McBride, the new president of the American Federation of Labor, and the other new officers of that body took formal possession of the headquarters yesterday and entered upon their duties. The new executive council began its sessions, which will continue three or four days. Before McBride took the chair, Mr. Gompers made a speech welcoming his successor, and the new president replied in like manner. The headquarters of the federation will remove to Indianapolis in about four weeks.

M. De Giers Dying.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 2.—It is reported that M. De Giers, the Russian minister of foreign affairs, whose ill health has been referred to recently, is dying. It is also reported that the Russian ambassador to Austria, Prince Lobanoff-Rostovski, who is now on a special mission to Rome, having been charged to announce to the pope the accession of Czar Nicholas to the throne of Russia, will succeed M. De Giers as Russian minister of foreign affairs.

Rescued From a Perilous Position.

MENOMINEE, Mich., Jan. 2.—The three Woessack brothers who were carried out into the lake Sunday by drifting ice were rescued by fishermen 16 miles north of here at 10 o'clock last night. All are badly frozen, and were nearly famished. Martin Woessack, who is a cripple, may not recover. Their boat was nearly cut through in several places by the sharp ice.

NOT READY FOR PEACE

Japan Not Anxious For Hostilities to Cease.

AN ONWARD MARCH TO PEKIN.

Minister Kurino of Japan, at Washington, Says That There Will Be No Armistice and No Abatement of the War Until China Has Been Completely Captured.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Minister Kurino of Japan said yesterday that in his judgment there would be no armistice and no abatement in the war between Japan and China until the peace plenipotentiaries have actually assembled, have formulated some basis which will warrant a cessation of hostilities, and have themselves asked for an armistice.

Mr. Kurino received unofficial information at an early hour yesterday morning that a manifesto had been presented to the Japanese parliament by the Liberal party, breathing the war spirit and asking the government to push on to Peking before consenting to an armistice.

"There is much talk of an immediate armistice," continued Mr. Kurino, "which is likely to cause misapprehension. I see no likelihood of an armistice until the plenipotentiaries have met and have agreed to request such action, together with some preliminary understanding to indicate the advisability of terminating hostilities. I am not officially advised that this was the course, but it seems the necessary and only one. It is certain there will be no hurried armistice, before it is known what the plenipotentiaries are really likely to accomplish."

The minister talked entertainingly of the great importance of the year just closed, on the history of Japan.

"It has been a most eventful year for Japan," said he to an Associated Press reporter. "Since the declaration of war last August, Japan has advanced steadily. And it is a remarkable fact that while our army and navy has been gaining an unbroken series of victories the internal resources of Japan have not suffered by being drained for war purposes. At first the people in the northern parts had some hardships, as their local commerce was injured by the needs of the government in taking their ships. But even these people have recovered. At present the industries, manufacturers, commerce and business of Japan are flourishing. There is the same activity and trade at Yokohama, today, as there was prior to the war. Corporation stocks showed some decline at the outset of the war, but now they are as strong as ever."

"Has the Japanese government been weakened by the demands of war?" Mr. Kurino was asked.

"Not in the least," said he; "it is stronger than ever in the support of the people and in the resources available. The war has aroused a dormant enthusiasm throughout the country. It has cemented parties and made them all loyal to the government policy. In three days the diet voted 150,000,000 yen for the government for use in the war. The speed of such an appropriation indicates the united purpose of the people and their legislative representatives to uphold the government at every point. For that reason the course the government determines on, either in continuing aggressive movements or consenting to an armistice, undoubtedly will have united support, notwithstanding the reported manifesto."

"How does the army and navy of Japan stand the hardships of war?"

"They seem to gather strength as they proceed," was the reply. "Military authorities appear to agree that the equipment and maneuvering and action of the army and navy are as good as modern nations have shown. The arms of Japan have been manufactured largely in her own factories. Many of the heavy guns have also been made at home. The navy has demonstrated the best possibilities of the cruiser, the torpedo and other arms of naval attack and defense. The three great engagements of the war—Ping-Yang, Yalu and Port Arthur—undoubtedly will stand as conspicuous events in military history. And with it all, Japan has shown her ability to conduct a great conflict and at the same time proceed with steady advancement in her internal affairs."

CARRIED OFF BY A MOB.

Defaulting County Treasurer Has Probably Been Hanged.

ONEILL, Neb., Jan. 2.—The defaulting treasurer of Holt county, Barrett Scott, is supposed to have been hanged by a mob Monday night. He was captured about midnight in a lonely part of the county north of this city. He was returning with his wife, baby, hired man named James Schmidt, and a Miss McWharther, from a trip to relatives about 13 miles from here, when six masked men sprang from the roadside, where they had been concealed, and, covering the carriage with Winchester, ordered Scott to surrender. Scott seized the reins and attempted to drive over the men. The masked men then fired into the carriage, killing the horses and shooting Scott in the neck and wounding Miss McWharther, though not seriously. The first party was then joined by a larger force, which had been placed across the road further on, to intercept the carriage had it escaped the first volley.

Scott and Schmidt were taken from the vehicle, blindfolded and thrown into a wagon, and the ladies were told to go on. Yesterday Schmidt returned. He had been taken to a sodhouse in the northwest part of the county with Scott. Schmidt was released with the injunction to get out of the county. It is believed that Scott has been hanged, as the farmers of the county are terribly incensed over his work.

Scott's default as county treasurer of Holt county, his flight to Mexico, his subsequent arrest, the strong fight made against his extradition, his return in irons, incarceration, trial, conviction, sentence, appeal and release on bonds two weeks ago have been told at length from time to time since a year ago last August, when the discovery of his criminality was first made public.

Scott's troubles began in January, 1892, at the close of his first term, when he was asked to allow the commissioners to see the cash that his books showed to be in his hands. Scott did not have the money on hand, there being but $7,348 in the vault when the commissioners made their first visit. They then gave Scott 10 days in which to make the showing, and money was secured from Omaha for that purpose.

When the borrowed money was shipped out the next day, and the board learned of it, and that $75 was paid for the use of it, an investigation was started and Scott was removed from office. It was ascertained by the commissioners in June of that year, some time after the beginning of litigation, that a number of the sureties on Scott's bond were transferring their property, and he was notified that he must secure additional bonds. This he failed to do.

When the board met again it declared the office vacant and appointed R. J. Hayes, a Republican, to take the place in June, 1892. Scott refused to surrender and Hayes began mandamus proceedings to get possession of the office, but the case went to the district court, where it was hung up for a year, awaiting the decision of the supreme court in the case started a few months before, and it was not definitely acted on until after Scott had gone to Mexico.

Judge Marshall of the Fremont district was invited by Judge Kincaid to pass upon it, and he declared Scott removed from office, practically confirming the voluntary abdication of the defaulter.

When the Holt county bank failed on June 2, 1892, Scott asserted that there was about $40,000 of the county funds tied up there, but after statements were made by the bank officials he gradually modified the amount to $20,000. The statements of the bank examiner and receiver were to the effect that the sum was but $14,000, and of this amount $7,000 was deposited by Scott to his private account.

After Scott had been jailed at O'Neill legal machinery was set in motion to effect his release. Habeas corpus proceedings failed. His bail was originally fixed at $13,000, but was later raised by Judge Kincaid to $75,000. This amount was asserted to be excessive, but the court refused to lower it.

Recourse to the supreme court gave no relief, and finally, after Scott had been nominally in jail for several months, he was liberated on bail. His case was taken to Antelope county, on a change of venue, and the trial last September resulted in his conviction and sentence to five years' imprisonment. Pending an appeal, his bond was fixed at $70,000. This he could not secure, and the matter was taken to the state supreme court. On Dec. 6, that body decided that the bond was excessive, and reduced the amount of $70,000 to $40,000. In a day or two Scott secured the necessary bondsmen and was released on bail. Upon his release, Scott returned to Holt county.

Will Ask Senator Mills to Resign.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Jan. 2.—A resolution which will be introduced in the next legislature has been framed here, requesting Senator Roger Q. Mills to resign his seat in the senate on the grounds that he does not represent Texas, and setting forth that he has refused to endorse Texas men for positions and declared to interest himself in having a national bankrupt law passed.

GRENADA, Miss., Jan. 2.—A terrible tragedy occurred last night at a social entertainment given at Cascilla, a little village 18 miles west of here in Tallahatchie county. While the fun was at its height a shot rang out and George Sanford fell to the floor mortally wounded, with a lead of buckshot in his breast. There is a clew but the name of the suspect will not be divulged until after the coroner's jury investigates. Jealousy is supposed to have been the assassin's motive.

DETAILS OF A HORROR

Forty People Were Burned to Death at Silver Lake, Or.

FULLY AS MANY MORE HURT.

Christmas Eve Festivities Ended in a Horrible Holocaust The Upsetting of a Lamp Caused the Calamity—Many of Those Who Perished Were Burned Beyond Identification.

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 2.—A letter to the Associated Press from Silver Lake, Or., gives the number of people burned to death in the fatality of Christmas eve as 40. Fully as many more were injured, some fatally. The names of the dead were given in former dispatches.

The fatally injured are: Robert Snelling, Roy Ward, Mrs. Thomas Lobbie, George Paine, Charles Hendricks, Bert Cowdy, Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Annie Anderson, Mrs. Ward and three children of Mrs. Egli.

Those seriously injured are: Four Buick children, Jack Henderson, L. Coshaw, Clara Snelling, Mrs. C. Marshall, Mrs. R. Homing and Mrs. L. Buick.

Many of those who perished were burned beyond identification. About 200 persons were in the hall altogether. All had met at Chrisman Brothers to hold Christmas tree exercises. While presents were being distributed George Paine, a young man, started to go to the door, walking on top of the seats. His head struck a large lamp, which began to swing to and fro. He caught hold of it to steady it. The lamp began to flash up. Some one knocked it out of his hand, and it fell on the floor. Oil was spilled on the floor, and the flames started to run along the side and across the rear of the building, where was the only outlet to the hall, cutting off all egress.

Panic followed, and but little thought was given to the screaming women and children. It was a case of survival of the fittest. A number of persons got out at one of the two windows in the hall, but soon the entire building was enveloped in flames, shutting off all hope of escape for those still in the hall. The fearful calamity has prostrated the whole county. Every house in the village is a hospital, and people have come for 100 miles to minister to the injured and inter the dead.

There was nothing left by which to identify the victims, and the bones were gathered up and all buried in one grave.

James Smail, a well known stockman of the county, had started east with a band of horses and had reached Eurus, Parney county, when he heard that his son was one of the victims of the fire. He started to return immediately, and in 19 hours he covered a distance of 300 miles on horseback. He returned just in time to see the bones of his son laid to rest in the common grave with the other victims.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

Five Desperate Prisoners Saw Their Way to Liberty.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Jan. 2.—Five desperate prisoners saw their way out of the Buchanan county jail here during the night. The fact was not known until 8 o'clock in the morning. By that time the men, who, it was later learned, are all armed, had made good their escape. The escaped prisoners are: Patrick Crowe, Ira Curtner, Jock Dusty, William Fulmer and James Owens.

Crowe is one of the men who headed the train robbers who operated so boldly and successfully in this city last winter. He is a desperate man, wanted in half a dozen states for serious crimes.

Dusty was under sentence of death for rape, a stay of execution having been granted to allow the supreme court to pass upon the case.

Owens was an Atchison county prisoner, also sentenced to hang, and his case is also before the supreme court.

The other men were in jail for larceny.

The prisoners escaped by sawing the iron bars of the corridor window and lowering themselves to the ground with ropes. Four saws were found in the jail.

Thomas Hickman, a trusty, was found lying bound and gagged in the corridor, but the authorities assert he furnished the tools and that he released the prisoners from the cells into the corridor.

KENTUCKY LYNCHING.

An Alleged Murderer Hanged to a Railroad Trestle.

MOUNT STERLING, Ky., Jan. 2.—About 2 o'clock yesterday morning a mob of 25 men went to the county jail, overpowered Jailer Best, secured the keys and took from jail Tom Blair of Morgan county and hung him to a railroad trestle in the city limits.

Blair fought desperately for his life, and was beaten into almost insensibility before he was hung. Blair was one of the parties who assisted in the killing of Captain J. L. Bomar in this city last February. He was cleared of the charge, and was in jail for shooting at with intent to kill a few days ago. It is supposed that the friends of Bomar were the lynchers.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 2.—An earthquake last night caused slight damages in this city and vicinity. The shock lasted nine seconds. It is known that three persons were seriously injured.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1895.

Fair, warmer weather, south winds.

The Burlington (Iowa) Gazette remarks that the Democratic counties in that State are prosperous ones. Kentucky would be better off if as much could be said of most of the Republican counties in this Commonwealth.

CONGRESSMAN PAYNTER'S resignation will be read in the House to-day. Unless the law is mandatory, Governor Brown should not put the district to the expense of holding a special election to fill the vacancy. We believe this is largely the sentiment of the district.

The fact that a Kansas Judge has sentenced a hypnotist to be hanged for a murder committed by a party under his "influence" shows that the courts regard this dangerous power in its proper light. A party thoroughly hypnotized is simply an instrument in the hands of the hypnotist, and in the case referred to the court rightly judged that the hypnotist was the guilty party.

The Ledger rises to nominate Br'er M. F. Marsh for State Treasurer on the Democratic ticket. He can always have plenty of money in the Treasury—in his mind.—Public Ledger.

Thanks, but when we want a nomination for any office we shall seek it from better sources.

But talking of nominations, Br'er Davis, have you forgotten that Augusta convention? You remember it distinctly, of course, because you were a candidate before it, or thought you were until the Boss let you know you would have to step aside. And then when he pulled the string, don't you remember how you meekly stepped to the front and said you retired "in the interest of harmony?" Of course you do, and the crowd present wondered if "he would ever smile again."

As for the State Treasury, we doubt whether any one will ever be able to keep plenty of money in it, as long as so many of the Republican counties draw more money out of it than they pay into it.

A SPLENDID COMPANY.

The Robinson Opera Troupe Receives a Very Handsome Endorsement, and It's Unsolicited.

The people of this city certainly don't appreciate good singing and good acting, or the opera house would be packed nightly this week to hear the Robinson Comic Opera Company. It may be, however, that the people don't know what a good thing they are missing.

The Robinson's came to Maysville highly endorsed by the press, and they have demonstrated that they deserve all that has been said of them. Their rendition of that charming opera "Chimes of Normandy" last night, delighted all who were fortunate enough to be present, and some of the most critical were there. It was, indeed, a most pleasing revelation to the audience. The leading parts were almost faultlessly rendered, and the support was excellent. Here's a testimonial that speaks all the more strongly because it was unsolicited:

E. L. Kinneman, Esq.—Dear Sir: We are prompted by the conscientious and artistic performance of the Robinson Opera Troupe to tender our thanks for the engagement you have with them. We unhesitatingly pronounce this week's entertainment the most enjoyable the opera house has furnished in years, and advise all lovers of music, coupled with good acting, not to miss the opportunity to hear the Robinson Opera Troupe.

Mention was made in the issue of the WEEKLY BULLETIN, December 15th, of L. C. It is dated January 3, 1823, and is for "five flower barrels" received from Abraham Hess for Asael Brookover. History says that Daniel Boone, the noted Indian fighter, died in 1820. There was, say old settlers, a man by the name of Daniel Boone, proprietor of a flour mill in Maysville about the date of the above named receipt.

May God speed them in their work.

THIS SPEAKS HIGHLY FOR ALL CONCERNED.

MAYSVILLE, KY., January 1, 1895.
Editor of Maysville Bulletin—Dear Sir: I have a little item of news that I ask space for in your most valuable paper, of the dealings I have had with one firm doing business in this city. I have been buying goods from that firm, Mr. George Cox and sons and grandsons every year for sixty-five years, and there has never been any mistake in our accounts or any unkind feeling. In addition to this I have furnished them milk for twenty-two years and have not missed one day in that time; six years of that time I lived in the country. There has never been one complaint as to the quality or quantity of milk. Now if any person can beat that I would like to hear from him. Respectfully,

THOMAS NEAL.

MORE ABOUT HARRIS.

Why the Warrant for the Fuel Gas Man was Withdrawn—He Will Bring Suit.

[Cincinnati Enquirer, January 1st.]

W. H. Harris, who has had so much publicity lately, was a pretty sick man when an Enquirer reporter found him yesterday afternoon in his flat, at No. 129½ West Seventh street. He was suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, and was being attended by his wife, who had just arrived in the city the day previous.

"I am here to stay," said Mr. Harris, "and will in the future make Cincinnati my home. I will file suits against the parties who have caused me all my troubles, in the United States Court. I will have Mr. Charles T. Blandin arrested and will prosecute him. So far as my past is concerned it is an open book, which all my read."

Mr. Harris requested that a portion of a letter from Prosecuting Attorney Fellows, of New York City, to Governor Flower, be made public. It is as follows:

"Assistant District Attorney McIntyre's investigation discloses the fact that at the time Harris sold the stock to Blandin a contract in writing was entered into, containing no representation, true or false, but simply reciting the transaction between the two parties. Mr. McIntyre holds that on the complainant's own showing his office would not be justified in submitting the case to a jury. The General Electric, Gas and Iron Company seems to be a corporation which lacks capital, but which controls valuable patents. I find that Mr. Blandin has been to the different directors and has obtained options on their stock at a considerably larger figure than that which he claims for his, and, it is evident that his object in attempting to extradite Mr. Harris upon this indictment is to further a scheme to get entire possession of the patents of this company. He has even offered a witness money to go West and steal valuable papers connected with the company from Mr. Harris. He is attempting to get hold of the foreign patents, and, in my judgment, it is an attempt to use this office, upon an indictment which could not stand in court, for the purpose of getting proceedings in the civil courts."

JAMES CHANDLER.

One of the County's Highly Respected Citizens Passes Away Tuesday Evening.

Mr. James Chandler died yesterday afternoon at 4:30 at his home on Lawrence Creek, of pneumonia. He had been sick several weeks, and it was thought some days ago that he would soon be able to get out. But there was a change for the worse, and he succumbed to the disease last evening.

Deceased was about seventy years old, and had spent most of his life in the neighborhood where he died. His parents moved to Mason from Fleming when he was a child. He was a quiet and industrious citizen, straightforward in all his dealings, and no one in his neighborhood was esteemed more highly. His wife, one son, Mr. Frank Chandler, and one daughter, Mrs. Collins Ricketts, survive.

Funeral to-morrow at 11:30 a. m. at the Christian Church on Lawrence Creek. Services by Rev. W. W. Hall.

Burglars Captured.

Four or five parties were arrested at Covington a few days ago by Detective Fitzgerald for breaking into C. and O. freight cars. They were suspected of knowing something about the robbery of Mr. W. A. P. Lurvey's store at Dover Christmas night, and one of them at last gave the thing away and told where some of the stolen goods were concealed, in a barn on Mr. James Boyd's farm, near Dover. A search disclosed the goods.

Captain Fitzgerald will bring the accused up to Dover to-day for a hearing.

POINTER FOR MAYSVILLIANS.

Covington and Cincinnati Parties Buying Shoes and Clothing in This City.

A few days ago a gentleman from Covington was in Maysville on business, and passing along Second street, a display of shoes in a show window attracted his attention, and the prices were more interesting than the display. The result was he purchased two pair, of shoes.

While at the depot the Covington gentleman met an acquaintance of his who is a resident of this city. The Maysville man, when he saw the package, inquired: "You buy shoes in Maysville? I should think it would pay you to go over to Cincinnati." The reply was: "In purchasing these shoes in Maysville I have saved $1.50, and as my trips here are of frequent occurrence, I will buy all my shoes here, and not only my shoes, but my clothing. I know that I can get better clothing for less money in Maysville than I can in Cincinnati."

Another instance was a Cincinnati traveling man and a resident of that city who came direct from home, went into one of our shoe stores and purchased a pair of shoes for himself, and when questioned about it he said he would have to pay at least $1 more for the same shoe at home than he had to pay in Maysville.

There's a pointer in this for those Maysvillians who think they can get goods cheaper in the Queen City than from home merchants.

BECOMES A DEMOCRAT.

And He Gives His Reasons For Doing So—He Has Swallowed Enough Republicanism.

[Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat.]

Many of our readers, especially our soldier readers, remember George L. Jones, who was special examiner for the Pension Department under Mr. Cleveland's former administration, with headquarters for a great portion of the time in this place. Mr. Jones is a resident of Manilla, Indiana, and in our mail last week was a copy of a paper which he and his son and another gentleman are engaged in publishing. It is Democratic. Among other things it contains the following unique card from Charles Sumner Briggs, a life-long Republican quitting that party. Mr. B. says:

"It may appear a little strange that a life-long Republican should become a Democrat at this particular time; and yet such is the case with me. I stood in with and by the old party through thick and thin. I carpet-bagged and scalawagged with it during the time it looted the defeated and broken South; I accepted the 'nigger' as my political brother and equal without a thought of his odor and complexion; I clapped and hurrahed when it stole the Presidency from Tilden; I was for protection and high tariff and said, 'The people be damned,' whenever a word was said in their behalf. Yes, I stood it all. No matter how bitter the pill, I shut my eyes and swallowed it down. But at last the dose was too nauseous even for my strong Republican stomach when the party took in the bounty-grabbing Southern sugar planters and the ruffian and bobtail of the Democratic party throughout the land. Democracy now stands purged. It is happily rid of its dirty members, for they are the cheapest rascals I ever heard of, bought up for a mere song, and it is with pleasure and pride that I announce myself a Democrat, 'henceforth now and forever.'"

THREE PEOPLE BURNED TO DEATH.

The Miller Hotel at Lancaster, Kentucky, Destroyed by Fire.

DANVILLE, Ky., Jan. 2.—The Miller hotel at Lancaster was burned early yesterday morning. There were four persons in the building at the time. Edward A. Pascoe and wife, their baby, about 2 years of age, and mother-in-law, Mrs. Masters. The wife only escaped.

The fire started in the cellar where it must have been smoldering all night as the Pascoes were about suffocated when awakened. The husband assisted his wife to the window and returned to assist his mother-in-law and babe but was not able to return. No other guests were in the hotel which had been conducted by Pascoe and he had made all arrangements to give it up, having moved his furniture out of the building.

Pascoe was 26 years of age, and came from Nicholasville, Ky. Mrs. Masters was a widow.

The building was a 3-story brick, belonging to Sam Miller of Knoxville, and was insured for $5,000. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

MURDERERS RAN DOWN.

Cleveland Police Believe They Have Made an Important Capture.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 2.—The Cleveland police believe that they have the men who murdered William H. Brice, a prominent citizen, three weeks ago, while burglarizing his house on Hawthorne avenue. They give their names as Charles B. Benz, a coachman, and Thomas Grant, a laborer. J. J. Johnson, a carpenter, and Harry Gruninger, a small merchant, were also arrested. The names of none of them except the last two can be found in the city directory.

Johnson, who was at one time a private detective and later a Detroit policeman, made a full statement of what he knows yesterday afternoon. He implicates Benz and Grant. They broke into the house and were surprised by Mr. Price, who awoke. Johnson says one of them shot and wounded Mr. Price, who still pressed them closely, whereat the two shot several bullets into him and killed him. The detectives will not yet reveal who Benz and Grant really are.

W. A. Shull was instantly killed and Joshua Walsh was fatally injured. Henry Hurst and Charles Sutton were badly injured.

What caused the explosion is not known. The neighborhood was badly shaken up and the houses in the vicinity trembled, and the report was heard in this city, seven miles from the scene.

Collided With a Flatcar.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—An outgoing passenger train on the Chicago & North-western road ran on to a siding at midnight and collided with a flatcar. The train, which was loaded with suburban passengers, was not badly damaged, and but three of the passengers were injured. They were: Mrs. William Preston, caught between two seats, leg crushed and internal injuries, will die; William Preston, right leg badly bruised, not serious; Arthur Pitts, bruised, not serious. Honoring General Hastings.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 2.—The Union league of this city will give a reception to General Hastings Saturday evening. Invitations have been sent to all the prominent Republicans in the state.

Sensational Contest Settled.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 2.—Stephen S. Jewett of Laconia, was yesterday evening nominated by the Republican house caucus for speaker. This apparently settles the United States senatorial contest, as Mr. Chandler's cause has been closely identified with that of Mr. Jewett.

Ore Wheelers at the Edgar Thompson Steel Works Go Out on a Strike.

BRADDOCK, Pa., Jan. 2.—Last night the ore wheelers at the blast furnaces of the Edgar Thompson steel works, on both the day and night turns, went out on a strike against a reduction in wages. About 600 Slovaks are now out. All the furnaces, nine of them, are closed, with the exception of furnace A, which is filled with ferro-manganese, and which the company will try and keep running, as it would be a very heavy loss to allow it to close with such precious material in it.

Twenty-two extra policemen were sworn in as soon as the strike was declared, and all of them are on the ground to prevent any trouble. Everything is quiet, however, and no trouble is feared at least for the present. Much uneasiness is felt over the outcome of this strike.

Big Stakes Offered.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—The stakes recently announced for its June meeting by the Coney Island Jockey club close Wednesday. They are as follows: The Great Trial Stakes ($20,000)—A sweepstake for 2-year-olds; the Futurity course, about three-quarters of a mile; the double event, $10,000; a sweepstake for 2-year-olds; the first event to be run the first day of the June meeting, the second event to be run the last day of the meeting; Futurity course.

MERIDIAN, Miss., Jan. 2.—Last Saturday evening, near Kell's store, in Kemper county, Miss., T. Balkman waylaid and shot William Sanford to death with a double-barreled shotgun as he was riding along the public road. PITTSBURG, Jan. 2.—A. C. Buckinberger will, in all likelihood, manage the St. Louis Browns next season. President Von der Ahe on last Friday asked for Buckinberger's terms, which were forwarded. As a result of the correspondence, "Buck" left for St. Louis last night to close the deal.

Chopped His Wife to Pieces.

It comprises 40,000 acres. The purchase price is between $160,000 and $200,000 in gold, or $400,000 Mexican money.

Joyous throbbing life offered to the chronic invalid would be regarded with distrust! Long suffering leaves the patient hopeless—he believes no more in any cure. Would that such hopeless ones could read the testimonials of

Brown's Iron Bitters

They point a way to relief and health, and they are genuine!

SWEET WATER, TEXAS.
For twelve long years I was a great sufferer from kidney and other troubles, and at times was confined to my bed. I tried a number of medicines recommended by sympathizing friends and prescribed by physicians without receiving the least benefit. Then I gave Brown's Iron Bitters a trial, and two bottles brought me off my back. Today I am well and hearty.
W. T. COOK.

and then this:
TEN BROOKS, TENN.
After being under the care of a physician for eight years, I commenced taking Brown's Iron Bitters with the result that I am entirely cured. It is the best remedy I have ever taken, and I certainly wish that every man suffering as I did could know its value.
